Security risk assessment report

Part 1: Select up to three hardening tools and methods to implement
MFA,Port Filtering,Network access privileges

Part 2: Explain your recommendations
MFA will add an additional layer to the security of the network by protecting against brute force attack or in a case where the passwords have been compromised as it is in this case . Port Filtering in our case will help firewall filter out unwanted communication and by preventing potential attackers from entering the network .